Department of Apparel Design & Fabrication Technology

ADFT started in the year 1991, is one of the program offered by VET BVL Polytechnic. Staff and students take immense interest in getting exposure to the latest technologies and industrial practices by working in close association with industry. Organising Fashion Show by final year students is the prime attraction of every annual day of polytechnic. Students take part in fashion shows at Inter College levels and exhibitions with the encouragement of faculty members.

'Pari' An angel of Fashion

PARI a fashion event is the initiative taken by the staff and students of ADFT department and the platform is open for budding designers who have lost the opportunity due to COVID-19 pandemic, to present their talent in showcasing their designs and creativity.
